

Ingram Brothers Ethical Policy

---

Ingram Brothers strives to work with customers and suppliers to ensure that fair and mutually beneficial trading takes place to maintain a sustainable economic environment.

As a family business, morals and values are extremely important to Ingram Brothers. Where possible we will try and encourage customers to look at sustainably sourced products that have extremely beneficial fair trading policies attached to them.

Ingram Brothers are members of Sedex and the RSPO, highlighting our commitment to responsible and ethical supply chains.

We will work with our suppliers and customers wherever possible to ensure that our supply chain remains fair, just and works towards a more sustainable future for all.

